COMMITMENT TO EQUITY, DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION

The University is committed to ensuring that all our students enjoy similar levels of experience and achieve similar levels of success regardless of their background. Our ambition is to be a university where inclusivity is deliberately designed and embedded into all that we do, where every student feels like they matter, belong and achieve their full potential. We are a university that dismantles institutional structures and systems that lead to discrimination, removing barriers that stand in the way of achievement, and building our strengths in advancing equity. Further details of the University's ambitions are available at: <https://www.salford.ac.uk/equity-diversity-and-inclusion>

ACCOMMODATION

If you need somewhere to live during your studies at the University of Salford, you should start your accommodation search as early as possible, as places fill up quickly.
